

From 1967 until 1975 we were housed in the basement of Roberts Hall, formerly known as Mines Hall. Among its features was a replica open pit coal mine. Our annual party to welcome new graduate students is still referred to as "The Pit Party" because it was originally held there! Two photos predating our occupancy appear below.

